The petitioner and the 2nd respondent Chairman, counsel for petitioner and respondents are present. The parties have agreed that the dispute can be settled by the respondents paying Rs.32,500/- (Rupees Thirty two thousand and five hundred only) to the petitioner on or before 25.2.2007. On such payment the writ petition will stand closed. In case this full amount is not paid by that date the writ petition will stand allowed. The respondents will also give a letter expressing their appreciation and thanks to the petitioner for the supply of free medicines and rendering services in connection with the Chikun Gunya eradication programme at Cherthala. The petitioner desires such a letter to make it clear that this amount is not in respect of the amount agreed to be paid by the respondents.
